A close-up, artistic portrait of a woman's face. Her skin is fair with visible freckles. Her eyes are light green and looking slightly to the side. Her hair is blonde and styled in a short, textured cut. She is wearing a piece of clothing or a headpiece with intricate embroidery. The embroidery features large, fan-like shapes in shades of orange, red, and gold, outlined with dark red thread. There are also smaller, star-like embroidered elements in white and gold. Several small, round, translucent beads are attached to the embroidery. The overall aesthetic is elegant and detailed.

The Women of AI

VOL. 1 – A Creative Introduction

The Women of AI is a growing global movement of women creatives, technologists, entrepreneurs, and thought-leaders shaping how artificial intelligence is designed, applied, and understood. This first volume highlights not only their work but also the voices behind innovation in AI.

This collection curates images shared by members of The Women of AI LinkedIn group (<https://www.linkedin.com/groups/13299370/>), offering a glimpse into the creative and visionary projects being created today.

Call for Submissions: VOL. 2 – Fall Edition

We invite all members to contribute to the second volume, celebrating the season of change and imagination.

Theme: FALL

- Fall fashion
- Seasonal art
- Pumpkin spice moments
- Ghosts and witches
- Spooky creations and more

Deadline: October 31, 2025
